OLD STONE VILLA

If you've driven down Depot Street in Mount Croghan recently you've probably noticed the extensive work being completed at what has now been named Old Stone Villa. The building has been charmingly restored into an elegant wedding and event venue. Although available for celebratory events such as anniversaries the villa is especially designed for a one of a kind wedding. With consultants to cover every detail from limo service to catering to florists the Old Stone Villa is equipped to provide the perfect wedding experience with the ease of one-stop shopping. The final touches are currently being added and the villa is set to open in late September. If you have an upcoming event and would like more information contact Lynol Jones at 704-219-1801 or 704-615-7078. Beth Leonard

HOMETOWN HOMECOMING

The town of Mount Croghan will host the Hometown Homecoming September 27 from 12:00pm to 4:00pm on the museum grounds. Entertainment and lunch will be provided by the town, but donations are greatly appreciated! Tony Adams will be providing the entertainment again this year. Fun door prizes will be given away throughout the afternoon. Various vendors will also be in attendance selling their products. Pack up your lawn chair and come enjoy a relaxed family-friendly event with your neighbors. Beth Leonard

YARD SALE

Pack up all those discarded items taking up needed space at your home and haul it the Mt. Croghan Museum grounds Saturday, October 11 for the community wide yard sale. Tables will once again be provided by the town. Don't have enough stuff to sell? Bring some cash and browse another man's trash for your next treasure. It begins bright and early at 8am. To reserve a table please contact Susan Jordan at 634-7074 by October 8. Beth Leonard

CARLEY EASON

Mount Croghan resident Carley Eason has been crowned Miss Pageland USA 2014. As such, she will represent the town of Pageland in the Miss South Carolina Pageant November 21st and 22nd. When Carley was crowned Miss Pageland she was awarded a $1,000.00 scholarship from the Miss Pageland Scholarship Organization. She is using it to further her education at the University of South Carolina at Lancaster in her hopes of becoming a sonographer. Carley is looking forward to competing in the upcoming Miss South Carolina Pageant and stated, "I'm not nervous yet, just excited!"

She has competed in several pageants in the past and was the 2013 Miss Watermelon for Pageland. Individuals or businesses who are interested in supporting Carley in the Miss South Carolina Pageant are certainly welcomed to do so. Those who donate $50.00 or more will be listed on her official sponsor page in the Miss South Carolina USA Pageant program book. The donations will be used to offset the cost of preparing and competing in the pageant. For those interested, checks can be made out to the Miss Pageland Scholarship Organization Fund and mailed to Carley Eason at 22072 Highway 9; Mount Croghan, SC 29727. The deadline for all sponsorships is September 15. We wish Carley all the luck in the world!

CELEBRATE THE CHILDREN

Kambrie and Porter Kearns

Sister and brother Kambrie and Porter Kearns have been named the 2014 Aquanauts children's queen and king at Hope Family Worship Center. They earned the most points in various categories which included attendance, class participation, bringing a guest, giving an offering, and bringing their Bibles to class. They each received a free trip to Chuck E. Cheese and they will be the first in line for the center's gift shop for the entire year. Kambrie was also given a tiara and Porter was awarded a sword.

Courtney Jones

College student Courtney Jones, daughter of Susan and Jesse Jordan of Mount Croghan and Buddy Jones of Pageland, was recently inducted into two honor societies. She is currently attending South Piedmont Community College where she is majoring in business. Due to Courtney's strong work ethic and excellent grades she was inducted into the National Society of Leadership and Success as well as the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society. Excellent job!

Nathan Najera

Each summer the Chesterfield County Library system offers a reading program for kids throughout the county. Small prizes are given during the summer for those who keep up their reading skills and larger prizes are awarded for the kids who've read the most. Nathan Najera read the most books for his age category and was given a certificate and medal along with a $50.00 gift card to Wal-Mart.

Drew Najera

The annual Take-A-Kid fishing event, hosted by Wildlife Action at the pond of Mt. Croghan residents Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Douglas, was a great success for one of Mt. Croghan's littlest residents. Three year old Drew Najera reeled in the most fish (5) and was awarded a trophy and $50.00 for his efforts. Congratulations!
